Chairperson's Message

Is success today measured not by how far we reach, but by the number of individuals we leave behind to come so far .....?

That's how competition seems to describe life today. There isn't a place, a field or position for which we do not have to compete. Competition is an opportunity to improve ourselves, a way to see where we stand in life. It doesn't matter whether the competition is between two or two hundred; what matters is how we strategize ourselves to give our best.

The competitive spirit is what gives us the zeal to achieve what we desire, leaving behind the rest of the world, and does the lack of it prove us to be losers in this illusionistic world? Is it that if we are not a part of the rat-race always, we become non-achievers? No. Competition is only necessary for us to realize that life is not a cake walk and we have to work hard to achieve our goals. The moment one discovers, "If you want the rainbow, you have to put up with rain", one is led by a powerful driving force—hard work—towards the attainment of one's set goals. Wishing all of you the best for working in your chosen direction and fulfilling your dreams, making every step of your journey ahead—satisfying and rewarding.

Kiron Prabhakar
(Chairperson)
Oxford Senior Secondary School

On the morning of Nov. the 16th, 2012, as the sun's rays shone brightly, majestic Oxford Sr. Sec. School had thousands of glowing faces eagerly awaiting the momentous visit of their revered leader—Daw Aung San Suu Kyi, the Nobel Laureate and Chairperson of National League for Democracy, Myanmar. This champion of Democracy addressed her Burmese brethren at Oxford—the chosen venue for her reception. How this staunch supporter of human rights has been struggling for over two decades, undergoing untold suffering, detained in her home country is no secret. Today this celebrated leader is being hosted with great ceremony the world over.

Arriving amidst reverant gaiety, Daw Aung San Suu Kyi was escorted for a meeting with Chairperson Ma'am—Mrs. Kiron Prabhakar and a glimpse of the literary works of Founder Chairman Sir—Late Dr. C. P. Prabhakar. Chairperson Ma'am and Founder Chairman Sir's unflinching support to restoration of democracy in Burma is a fact appreciated and recognised by Daw Aung San Suu Kyi herself. Daw Aung San Suu Kyi's comment that she would have been fortunate, had she been able to meet the prolific writer Late Dr. C. P. Prabhakar—makes all the Oxfordians hold their heads high.

Speaking to the Burmese children and members of the Students' Prefectorial Board of the school, she said, the age-old Indo-Burmese relations now rest on the young shoulders like theirs.

Addressing the Burmese community she highlighted the changing situation and the return of law and order in Myanmar. She added that Myanmar however wasn't a democracy yet and this last leg of transition to democracy was the most difficult. The Burmese community in Delhi were filled with a renewed optimism with the words of Daw Aung San Suu Kyi.

No words would be adequate to express our sense of honour, but we are certain that the fragrance of this visit will continue to linger in the garden of Oxford for many many years to come.

November 24, 2012

November 24, 2012 had a special significance for the Oxfordians, as it was a labour of love, crafted with meticulous care and devotion through endless hours of hard work—The 43rd Annual Day Celebrations. Sharing the glories of achievements and pride and happiness of the Oxfordians were—Maj. Gen. Rajan Ravindran, General Officer Commanding 9 Infantry Division, as the Chief Guest and Mr. O. P. Nautiyal, Assistant Director of Education (Retd.) presiding over the function, and various other dignitaries.

Academic prize winners and Appreciation award winners were honoured by the Honourable Chief Guest. Flamboyant dances, irresistible action songs, exquisite style and exotic talent fused with ethnic hues formed the colourful cultural programme. The highlight of the evening was a very special item "Oxfordians will cherish....." presenting the glimpses of a memorable visit of Daw Aung San Suu Kyi, the Nobel Laureate and Chairperson of National League for Democracy, Myanmar.

BOARD RESULTS

The young Oxfordians are climbing the ladder of success, with the determination to reach the highest points. The school being equipped with amenities required for self-sustained growth of a child and for the children to showcase their abilities and prove themselves, helped students to excel in academics and achieve glorious results.

5th September 2012

Teachers mould the lives that they influence, because the lessons learned from teachers remain with the students throughout life.

Since times immemorial, teachers have been respected and idolized. Whether it was the 'Guru' of the earlier days or the contemporary 'Sir' or 'Ma'am', the role of teachers has remained the same. They were, are, and will continue to be the guiding light, creating conditions conducive to overall development of the students. As an expression of gratitude for their constructive support, 5th Sept. the birth anniversary of one of the greatest teachers India has known—Dr. Sarvapalli Radhakrishnan is celebrated as Teachers' Day. Students from class VI to XII assembled in the school ground to pay a reverant homage to the teachers. Respected Principal Ma'am and Vice-Principal Ma'am paid a floral tribute to Dr. S. Radhakrishnan on behalf of all the Oxfordians. The Head Girl—Tanya Talwar paid tribute to teachers who with their ceaseless efforts mould the minds of their students to the best shape, to take the country to the zenith of glory. The cultural programme in the afternoon included soulful bhajans, songs and dances. The enthralling programme concluded with a sumptuous lunch.

Farewell-Class XII

Remember that you have many wonderful and golden days ahead, something great to look forward to.

There's hope for brighter tomorrow,

*Raise your sails high and continue to journey towards your dreams
Just continue to dream as you navigate your ship like a master mariner.*

Let your heart be the chart and you'll reach the paradise that you've always yearned for.

Farewell—a time of times—a time of reflection, a time of sincere thought as one gazes into the memoirs of one's mind, a time that students eagerly look forward to all their school life, was finally experienced by the 2012-2013 batch of Class XII students on January 30, 2013.

Manager Sir, Capt. Shrikant Sharma blessed the students wishing them to follow their vision and fly high on the wings of knowledge. Principal ma'am, Mrs. Kokila Prabhakar wished them well for the Board Exams and reminded them knowledge is a special key to success in life.

This day which marks an important milestone in the lives of students was made even more special by singing, dancing and a sumptuous lunch.
